

News – Winter Drumline, Colorguard, Jazz, and Lots of “Fun”draising

January 20, 2023

Welcome back from the holidays! We hope that everyone had a peaceful, restful break with friends and family and are ready to start a new and exciting season! There is a lot to share so grab a cuppa and read on...

Parent Meeting and Family Donations for Spring

Thank you to everyone who attended our parent meeting this week. It was great to catch everyone up on our past events as well as everything coming up as we are now in full swing with our Spring season. At our meeting, we discussed the budgets associated with each group for Spring. Our parents voted to approve the budgets and the attached letter outlines the new pledge amount for each family for this season.

These donations go to support the continued activities in each of these sections including purchasing new music, festival and competition entry fees, coaching fees, and other ongoing needs of the program.

As mentioned in our previous email, we still need families to finish up their Marching Season donations so please consider sending a donation by the end of this month if possible. If you need more information on the remaining donation amount, please contact our treasurer, Jane Wabs, at treasurer@tigerregiment.org. No amount is too small and is greatly appreciated!

Whether you were able to attend this month’s meeting or not, please add our next parent meeting scheduled for Tuesday, February 21st to your calendar. These meetings are packed with more information about all our upcoming events and as well as ways for our families to get involved.

Winter Drumline Drum-A-Thon, Parent Preview, and 1st competition – February 4th and 18th

Our students in Winter Drumline have been working hard on their new show, Wonderland, and would like to preview their show to our families at the end of our Drum-A-Thon on Saturday, February 4th. More details on the Drum-A-Thon will be sent out soon. You won’t want to miss it!

Drumline’s first competition with SCPA is scheduled for February 18th in Rancho Cucamonga. Family volunteers needed for this show (as well as subsequent shows):

- 1 driver with a truck to tow our equipment trailer.
- 1 driver with a truck to help transport additional equipment.
- 6-7 drivers to help transport 22 students to / from the show.

This is a great way for families to get involved and help ensure that the kids can showcase all their hard work. Please contact our Drumline VP, Evelyn Ares, if you can volunteer at vpdrumline@tigerregiment.org.

“SOMETHING’S COMING”

Winter Colorguard Show@ VHS – February 18th

Our winter Colorguard has also been working extraordinarily hard rehearsing their show, “Something’s Coming” and we are pleased to announce that we have been given the impressive honor of hosting the WGASC Guard show at Valencia this year! This is a huge and exciting event where we will host at least 65 schools in an all-day competition on February 18th. Because this is such a large event and is a major source of funding for our guard season, we are asking each family to consider volunteering for one of the many time slots (4 hours each) available throughout the day.

Much like our Classic field show, we need over 80 volunteers for positions such as ticket sales, first aid, parking, hospitality, and concessions. Students will earn volunteer hours for their time worked at the show.

Our Valencia Jazz Band will be performing at the Esperanza High School Jazz Festival on Saturday, March 11th. We will post more details as we have them, but please join us for some great jazz!
